

CIRCUIT OF THE TOUBKAL MASSIF & ASCENT OF TOUBKAL (4167m)

Price includes:

- ◆ Transfers from Airport to hotel in Marrakech
- ◆ Accommodation for 2 nights in Marrakech. Half Board with basic ensuite facilities
- ◆ Transfers between Marrakech and Imlil by minibus
- ◆ Trek as per itinerary inclusive of all food, camping equipment (not sleeping bags), mules, Head Guide, and kitchen staff

Items not included:

- ◆ Morocco Visa – purchased at Marrakech airport. (approximately £5 payable in sterling)
- ◆ Lunches in Marrakech
- ◆ Travel insurance
- ◆ Tips for muleteers & kitchen staff (perhaps about £5)
- ◆ Items of a personal nature such as drinks, laundry, telephone calls and souvenirs.
- ◆ Tours or visits undertaken in Marrakech

CIRCUIT OF THE TOUBKAL MASSIF & ASCENT OF TOUBKAL (4167m)

ITINERARY – From 5 to 7hours trekking each day. This is an arduous trek you will need to be fit.

Day 1

Arrive Marrakech to be met by a Treks & Trails representative & transfer to hotel

Your hotel restaurant

Your first view of Toubkal. Imlil is peeping out of the trees and Aroumd is the village on the hill in the middle distance

Day 2 Morning in Marrakech. Afternoon - drive to Imlil (1740m) and then have a short (40 min) walk to stay in a traditional Berber house in the village of Aroumd (1950m)

Looking down on Amsakrou
Your campsite on the second night

Day 3

Aroumd via Tizi-n'Tametert pass to camp near village of Amsakrou

One of your mules en route to Oukaimeden

Day 4

Amsakrou via Tizi-n- Amsakrou pass, across the vast scree bowl of Tarigit and over the Tizi-n- Oukaimden pass (2683m) to Oukaimeden Village. We stay in the French Alpine Club refuge where there are hot showers & “alcoholic drinks”

Day 5

Oukaimden to the Tizi-nou Addi pass (2957m) and then descend via a superb rocky traversing path to camp at the village of Tachdirt. There is often a man selling Cola at the top of the pass.

Beautiful rock landscape on the descent from Tizi-nou-Addi

Setting up camp at Azib Likempt. An idyllic spot.

Day 6

Tachdirt via Tizi-n-Likempt pass (3554m) to camp near the remote Berber grazing area of Azib Likempt. An early start and a long climb.

Day 7

Azib Likempt over the Tizi-n-Ourai (a mere 400m climb) & then a long descent into the lush valley of Amsouserte where we stay in a basic guest house in the village.

Mules on the very pleasant walk to Tizi-n-Ourai

Basic but remarkably comfortable accommodation at Lac D’Infni. There are even electric lights.

Day 8

Quite a short day with an easy climb to the Lac D’Ifni where we stay in some unique accommodation gazing at the stars.

Day 9

An impressive start to the day from Lac D’Infni up to the Tizi-n'Ouanoums pass (3664m) before descending to stay at the Neltner Refuge (or possibly camp nearby as this is a popular hut and might be full)

On the summit of Toubkal with the Atlas Mountains stretching away into the distance

Day 11

A lazy day – AT LAST – after breakfast a short walk down to Imlil, leave the muleteers (presents & tips will be expected) and return to hotel in Marrakech.

Your hotel in Marrakech

Looking back down the pass towards Lac D'Infini

Day 10

ALPINE START. Up Toubkal and descend back to the Neltner Refuge for “brunch” before descending to our village accommodation in Aroumd.

This is a long day – be prepared for 12 to 14 hours

Leaving the Berber guest house in Aroumd for the short walk to Imlil

Day 12

Transfer to airport & fly home